from the community were in attendance at this fun "mini golf" event and had a chance to see the good work done by their local Shriners and given an opportunity to consider joining our organization.

David Stonehill of the Upper Snake River Shrine Club represented El Korah at the Grand Lodge Exemplification.

This month's Red Fez lunch was held in Payette with 18 Shriners and 7 ladies in attendance. Five Temples including El Korah, Al Kader, Afifi, Hillah and Ararat were represented. The next Red Fez lunch is planned for April 11th in Arco. Please contact the Recorder's office at admin@elkorahshrine.com if you plan to attend.

Spring is here and we have many events and activities planned for all around the state.

Four of our members traveled to Twin Falls earlier this month to assist in their annual "Icebreaker".

The Upper Snake River Shrine Club has finished their bylaws and will soon be able to start official meetings. The Tin Lizzie's donated six vehicles to them so they could get their parade unit started. This group is a wonderful addition to El Korah and I would like to thank all of you for your work in getting this group restarted.

El Korah hosted a St. Patrick's Day dinner with traditional corned beef and cabbage prepared by Boise Number 2. The Jobies from Bethel 48 helped with serving and clean up. The event was well attended by nobles, masons, wives and friends from the community.

Please mark your calendars for the upcoming Potentate's Ball on April 18th. Tickets are available by contacting the El Korah Reorder's office for $50.00 each. The event will be held at the Oxford Suites off of Overland behind Walmart and will include a catered meal, our own El Korah bar and dancing with our favorite DJs, Rockin' Rooster.

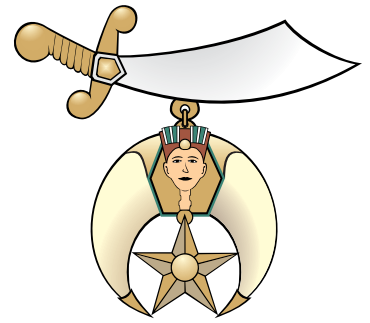

El Korah will welcome at least four new nobles at the Spring Ceremonial on April 25th. The Ceremonial will be held at the Jerome Masonic Lodge which was recently refurbished. Please plan to attend and help make this a special day for these new members. Please contact the Recorder's office for more information.

Thank you for your continued support of this wonderful organization. Our mission is to form lasting friendships, have fun and support our philanthropy, Shriners Children's. Please consider making a contribution to the "RACING TO HELP KIDS" fundraiser chaired by First Lady Terri and myself. Lady Terri is hosting a Kentucky Derby Watch party on May 2nd at the Boise Masonic Center - Westgate to kick this fundraiser off. Funds raised at this event and contributions to the project will be donated to the Portland Hospital and Salt Lake City Clinic to celebrate the many services they provide. Watch Constant Contact for more information.

Fraternally Yours,
Illustrious Sir, David Brannan

Chaplain's Corner

by David Triplett, Chaplain

The Parable of the Sower concerns a sower who scatters seed, which falls on four different types of ground.

The hard ground “by the way side” prevents the seed from sprouting at all, and the seed becomes nothing more than bird food.

The stony ground provides enough soil for the seeds to germinate and begin to grow, but because there is “no depth of earth,” the plants do not take root and are soon withered in the sun.

The thorny ground allows the seed to grow, but the competing thorns choke the life out of the beneficial plants.

The good ground receives the seed and produces much fruit.

Jesus' explanation of the Parable of the Sower highlights four different responses to the gospel. The seed is “the word of the kingdom.” The hard ground represents someone who is hardened by sin; he hears but does not understand the Word, and Satan plucks the message away, keeping the heart dull and preventing the Word from making an impression. The stony ground pictures a man who professes delight with the Word; however, his heart is not changed, and when trouble arises, his so-called faith quickly disappears. The thorny ground depicts one who seems to receive the Word, but whose heart is full of riches, pleasures, and lusts; the things of this world take his time and attention away from the Word, and he ends up having no time for it. The good ground portrays the one who hears, understands, and receives the Word—and then allows the Word to accomplish its result in his life.

The man represented by the “good ground” is the only one of the four who is truly saved, because salvation's proof is fruit (Matthew 3:7-8; 7:15-20).

To summarize the point of the Parable of the Sower: “A man's reception of God's Word is determined by the condition of his heart.”

A secondary lesson would be that “Salvation is more than a superficial, albeit joyful, hearing of the gospel. Someone who is truly saved will go on to prove it.”

May our faith and our lives exemplify the “good soil” in the Parable of the Sower.

Gold Rush Shrine Club

by David Triplett, Chaplain

On March 15th, we held our Shrine Gold Rush Shrine Club meeting in Idaho City. It was a potluck, and the food was great, and the fellowship was, as always, wonderful and heart-warming.

We feasted on salads, fried chicken, shrimp, soups, breakfast quiche, cookies, cake, and raspberry pie. We voted to have a potluck at our next meeting. It was so delicious. We also had free beer from the party that was held there the night before (Historical Societies St. Patties celebration).

I will make coffee for our next meeting. The next three meeting dates for 2026 are: April 19th, September 20th, and October 18th. Please add these dates to your calendar.

I gave a Sunday lesson that included the Easter Bunny traditions brought over by German immigrants from their ancient Pagan history. I will let you look up that story. But the Parable from Jesus in my Chaplain's Corner will be the main lesson for April 19th . . . as well as trying to expand your thought not only on what type of ground you need to become, but also if you were the sower, what are your seeds, and where are you scattering them.

Building El Korah for the Long Game

by Jason Morales, Assistant Rabban

El Korah Shrine has a rich history built by generations of Nobles who gave their time, their talent, and their treasure to something larger than themselves. That tradition is alive today — and it is worth protecting. But protecting it means more than maintaining what we have. It means building something that the next generation of Nobles want to be part of.

As I've settled into my role as Assistant Rabban this year, I often think about why I joined El Korah in the first place — the mission, the brotherhood, the chance to be part of something that truly matters. I would like this to be true for the next man through the door too. And one thing has become clear: the men most likely to become tomorrow's Nobles are busy. They're raising families, building careers, and already stretched across more commitments than they have hours for. That is not an excuse — it is our context. If El Korah is going to grow and thrive, we need to make it easier for these men to say "yes".

Modernizing our Shrine is not about abandoning tradition. It is about removing the friction that keeps good men on the sidelines at best, and indifferent and absent at worst. It means communicating clearly and consistently with our Nobility through new channels and formats. It means making our events and activities easier to find, follow, and attend. It means thinking about the member experience the same way any well-run organization does — from the moment someone first hears about El Korah, through becoming a Noble, and throughout their years of active involvement.

The good news is that our mission — supporting Shriners Children's, serving our communities, and building lasting brotherhood — is as compelling as ever. We do not need to change what we stand for. We need to get better at showing people what we stand for and making it easier for them to stand with us.

This is a multi-year effort, and I am committed to doing my part. As we head into spring and welcome new Nobles at our April 25th Spring Ceremonial in Jerome, I encourage every member of our Nobility to think about the role they want to play in shaping El Korah's next chapter. The strength of this Shrine has always been the Nobility — and that has not changed.

The Shrine that welcomes the next generation starts with the decisions we make today. I'm in this for the long game, and I'm glad to be working with you for the same.

Shrine Circus

by Gail Sivey, Co-Chairman

The Circus is coming! We are moving right along with getting all loose ends tied up. Our telemarketing company Idaho Entertainment is busy selling tickets to the public. The kids tickets have been ordered, and will be printed and sent to us. I hope to have them at the April Stated meeting and send them with Nobles so they can get be distributed in their areas.

We are also working on the about Circus Programs. Many Units and Clubs have asked about having an ad in the program. A quarter page “Clubs & Units” ad will cost $225.00. Please provide your artwork or graphic and your message. You’ll also get to sponsor a full page coloring graphic. You can provide this image or you can have the printer create one for you.

We’d also like to get some outside advertising this year, so please help by contacting local businesses and asking them to help support our Circus Program by running an ad.

We also need some Nobles to travel with us during the Circus and others to come out and help us when the Circus comes to your area. Please contact me for more information.

Coffee with Harlow

by Jason Morales, Assistant Rabban

Once a month or so, I drive over to Great Harvest Bread Company and meet Noble Harlow Kibbey for coffee. It’s a simple ritual — no agenda, no formal purpose — and it is one of my favorite fellowship touch points every month.

We’ve been doing this for several years now, and the conversations have ranged across just about everything: our families, our travels, the work we’re each immersed in, and yes — the Shrine. Harlow carries decades of institutional knowledge about El Korah, the people who built it, and the values that have held it together through good years and lean ones. Sitting across a table from him for an hour is an education you can’t get anywhere else.

What’s struck me most over the past couple of years is watching Harlow lean in rather than step back. Recently, he’s been traveling more — more adventurously — and has again become increasingly active across a variety of Masonic bodies. There is something genuinely inspiring about a man who, at a stage of life when many pull back from the world, is doing the opposite. He shows up. He engages. He builds.

That spirit has made him an invaluable connection for me in my own work within El Korah. When I need to reach a Noble I don’t know well — someone who has been around for decades, who shaped this fraternity in ways the rest of us are still benefiting from — Harlow is often the bridge. His network is deep and his words carry weight.

I share this because I think we underestimate how much value lives in the informal relationships within our fraternity — the coffees, the lunches, the conversations that don’t make it into the minutes of any meeting. Brotherhood isn’t just a word we use at Stated Meetings. For me and Harlow, it shows up at a small table on a weekday morning with a cup of coffee, a pastry, and a good hour of catching up.

For newer members of our humble fraternity, if you haven’t found your Harlow yet, I’d encourage you to go looking. The Shrine is full of these gems.

Greeters

by Ill Sir Ric Bobier, President

Happy Spring . . . or is it Summer? And then maybe Spring will get here. Regardless, I hope everything is going well for you all.

The Greeters held their March Dinner and Meeting on Friday, March 13th at the Banbury Golf Course Club House, we had 31 attendees and a very tasty dinner. Our speaker for the evening was Courtney Boyce from the Central District Health Department. She gave us a fantastic presentation on KRATOM and the issues that CDH and our Health Institutions are facing moving forward. It was a very informative evening. The Idaho Legislature is currently looking at this drug and attempting to decide how this will be classed in the State of Idaho.

Our April meeting will be held at the Boise Masonic Center - Westgate on Friday, April 3rd. El Korah Recorder (and Chef) Wayne Foster will be preparing the meal, although we are still deciding on the menu for the evening. But I guarantee it will be a delicious meal, and we'll have great drinks at a very reasonable price!

Our speaker for the evening will be Ron Berglund from the Pontiacs of Idaho Classic Automobile Club.

Come out and join us and support your Shrine Unit.

Upper Snake River Shrine Club and Tin Lizzies Building Momentum for the Parade Season

by Noble David Stonhill

As part of the ongoing revitalization of the Upper Snake River Shrine Club and parade unit, we're excited to share some recent progress and positive momentum. With renewed energy, growing participation, and a focus on restoring our parade presence, things are moving in a very encouraging direction.

Last Friday, Noble Doug Hammond and I made the trip to Mountain Home to pick up several Tin Lizzies generously provided by the El Korah Tin Lizzie Unit. This exciting addition gives us a strong head start as we prepare for the upcoming parade season.

We brought back five Tin Lizzies in total. Two of them will require only minor fine-tuning, while the remaining three will need a bit more attention before they're road-ready. Fortunately, all the necessary parts were included—along with a couple of spare engines and extra wheels. During the initial cleanup, I also uncovered a fun surprise: one of the cars (the red one in the picture) is actually a fire truck, complete with ladders and a bell!

Over the coming weeks, we'll be documenting each vehicle with photos and detailed descriptions. This will help us build an accurate inventory, prioritize restoration efforts, and match each car with the members best suited to bring it back to life—and keep it in top parade condition.

Looking ahead, I'm excited for the upcoming Spring Ceremonial, where we'll welcome new Nobles. We'll also have our next club meeting at 6:30 pm on March 26th at Tommy Vaughn's in Blackfoot. It will be a great opportunity to reconnect and continue building our momentum together.

On a related note, if you know a Mason who may be interested in a low-demand, high-benefit organization, the Upper Snake River Shrine Club could be an excellent fit. With growing participation, we may soon find ourselves with more drivers than cars—which would be a great problem to have!

If you're aware of a legacy Tin Lizzy tucked away somewhere, we would love to help put it back where it belongs: in a parade, driven by a Shriner!

Daughters of the Nile

by Shellie Smith, Princess Tirzah - elect

Excitement is truly in the air as we prepare to embark on a new chapter for our Temple. With the recent election of officers, there is a renewed sense of energy and enthusiasm among our members. We are eager to support our incoming leadership team as they step into their roles, bringing fresh ideas, dedication, and a shared passion for our mission—serving Shriners Children's and strengthening the bonds of our Temple.

We are especially looking forward to our upcoming Installation of Officers on April 4th at 2:00 pm. This cherished tradition is a meaningful time for all of us to gather in fellowship and celebrate both the accomplishments of the past year and the promise of the year ahead. We are proud to honor Queen-elect Sidonia Miller as she prepares to take on her leadership role, and we know she will guide our Temple with grace, commitment, and vision.

At our last Stated Session, Queen Terri Brannan was presented with a special recognition from the Daughters of the Nile Foundation in honor of Iras Temple No. 40's generous donations and unwavering support over the past year. This acknowledgment reflects the collective dedication and generosity of our members, whose efforts continue to make a meaningful impact in the lives of the children served by Shriners Children's.

As we look ahead to the new term, we do so with excitement and confidence. Together, we will continue to grow, support one another, and make a positive difference. With strong leadership and the continued commitment of our members, the future of Iras Temple No. 40 shines bright.

Here's to a memorable installation and a successful, inspiring year ahead!
